CRIME AND CORRUPTION IN INDIA

2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 345 Corruption is the central fact of Indian life today. After 50 years of independence and the free play of democratic forces, the cancer of corruption has crepted into every aspect of political and social life. Criminalization of politics has led to the mushrooming of criminal gangs who are financing and fighting elections along with politicians with a relatively clean track record. The stranglehold of the underworld over politicians has been so menacing that despite...
