We are housed and warm from the cold and damp--How goes the night in the distant camp Where our loved ones be? Hark! how the oaks and the maples groan As the snow comes down! Does the camp-song sink to a sadder tone As the snow comes down? Do the watch-fires burn with a warmer light As the storm comes on in its angry might? Doth the heart of the picket beat low to-night, Out in the snow? Doth his blanket keep off the rushing storm Of blinding snow? Doth the fire-light reach to his patient form, Out in the snow? Do his footsteps swerve from their measured beat, As the snow and the hail and the driving sleet Come down together? Does the round seem long to his...
