The Society roll as published in the last number of the Records foots up 238. Of these 4 never qualified, i is an honorary member, 3 were dropped for arrears some years since but held on to their places in the Record, and 6 others are so far in arrears that they will be dropped at this meeting. This leaves 224 members properly on the books, of which i76 are in good standing, having paid up to date, of current dues $i76, and back dues $29. There are 48 members now in arrears to the extent of $6i. The total disbursements amount to $325.95, of which $i00 was equally divided between Woods Hole Biological Laboratory and the Naples Station, and $54.50 went to pay for the Record for i89S; in all, the sum of $i54.50, for what maybe termed extraordinary expenses. This leaves the sum of $i7i.45 for the current expenses, and it comes within $33.55 of the actual income of the Society. In other words, with clues at $i per year this Society of about 225 members, publishing an annual Record as in the past, uses up nearly its entire income for printing and providing for its annual meetings. A surplus of from $30 to $35 may be ordinarily counted on, which indicates that, with the present balance, it will be just possible to make this year the same appropriations as were made last year without actually crippling the Treasury. The balance...
