Hope Lives: A Journey of Restoration (Paperback)

By Amber Van Schooneveld

Flagship Church Resources, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Compassion changes everything: how you view the world.yourself.even Jesus. Produced in partnership with Compassion International, this five-week exploration of compassion touches both the head and heart--And helps participants discover (and share) God's heart for the poor. The book contains 25 daily readings, divided into five one-week segments. Each of the 25 daily readings includes Scriptural support for the author's arguments, a page for journaling responses to challenging questions about the day's reading, and a prayer asking God for guidance through the issue at hand. Week 1: The Poverty of the Heart The first step on the journey is to understand the poverty of the heart, to search our hearts and ask why it's sometimes so hard to help those in need. How are things like materialism and individualism stifling compassion? On the journey, we'll set down the burden of guilt and pick up God's grace instead. Week 2: God is Not Silent God has provided a map for our journey in loving others. This week we'll explore what the Bible has to say...
