Excerpt: . . . not tell it before the messengers, since he might then have been accused of flattery; but Jesus would not have the bystanders think that he was offended by Johns message, or that it implied a vacillating weakness in John. When people have departed, the language which breaks out behind their backs about them and their friends is too frequently of a questionable order. But bow different was Jesus, and what an example he has left us in this as in other particulars!--Stalker, 8. But what went ye out for to see man clothed in soft lSuSti Behold, they that wear soft ZSffISS are in kings houses. 9. But whereiore went ye out tor to see prophet I say unto you, 1 and much more than a prophet. 10. FTrho5u is and of whom it is written, 2 Behold, I send my messenger before thy...
