Now happy he, whose cloak and cincture can Hold out this tempest. Shakspeare. I held onwards, as well as I could guess, in the direction of a village I knew to be some ten miles off; but when the dawn appeared, I found myself upon a part of the hills I had not, in my late wanderings ever before visited. A deep ravine was directly before me. The mist was so thick, that I could not make out distinctly whether another hill was beyond it, or the inundated plains.
