Sandprints of Death (Paperback)

By Nash Black

If Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Killer Stalks an Island Resort Jim Young is banished to a desolate winter beach to rebuild his smashed feet and legs. His left eye and racing career vanished like the Sandprints of Death left in the sand by the waves with each turn of the tides. His brother, Matt suffered a broken shoulder during the game before the playoffs that would have taken the Vikings to Super Bowl X. His life as a professional football player ends when his contract was not renewed. Maud Tosh, a friend of their mother s, flees to the coast to escape the pressures of a lover and dispose of the ashes of an abusive husband. Maud and Jim discover the body of a female guest of the hotel buried under the stairs leading to the beach. Matt uncovers the garroted corpse of an FBI agent. Their best recourse is to stay on the sidelines though Maud is searching for answers. Against their will they are drawn deep and deeper into the morass of murder. Though they know the investigation is...
