By Joseph Adshead

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Our Present Gaol System Deeply Depraving to the Prisoner and a Positive Evil to the Community: Some Remedies Proposed It is an interesting feature in connection with the treatment of criminals, that with the legislature, and also the public at large, there is evidently a growing concern evinced for the reformation of our penal code in its disciplinary application, and although the writer of the ensuing pages dares not presume to imagine that he has solved the problem of the proper treatment of offenders, he has nevertheless ventured briefly and consecutively to review the various modes of punishment which have been adopted in our gaols; to give the result of his own deliberate conviction, deduced from extensive and continuous observation of the proceedings in this and other countries towards that portion of fallen humanity requiring legislative interposition, and to offer suggestions as to some of the remedies for the eradication of the evils to which they have been exposed. It will be observed that the gaol association of criminals is stated to be a cardinal...
