Assessment, Evaluation, and Programming System: Test for Birth to Three Years and Three to Six Years (Paperback)

By Diane D Bricker, Betty Capt, J. J. Johnson

Brookes Publishing Co, United States, 2002. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2nd. 249 x 191 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The AEPS(r) Test allows professionals to gather assessment data for one child or a group of children in home- or center-based settings. This volume includes the tests for both age levels, which are divided into six developmental areas fine motor, gross motor, cognitive, adaptive, social-communication, and social. Each area is subdivided into a progression of skills: strands of general skill areasgoals made up of skills in those areasobjectives made up of smaller skills that build up to the goals View our recorded webinar: Reliable Assessment and Effective Programming with AEPS presented by Kevin Warg. While children and their caregivers engage in everyday activities, professionals assess each developmental area using the AEPS data recording forms. Each item is scored with a 0 (does not pass), 1 (inconsistent performance), or 2 (passes consistently). To supplement and clarify these scores, professionals choose from 5 qualifying notes and use the blank space provided for more specific comments. With this multipart scoring process and the input caregivers add with the revised Family Report the AEPS Test lets professionals pinpoint what children can do, identify...
