Excerpt: . . . the best one that yours has ever known. If last year was peculiarly blessed to the Band, write to us that we may pass on to others hints that will help them. 8 Missionary Committees in charge of the Missionary Meeting and other equally important interests should remember that the key to success lies in these four things: time, brains, pains and prayer. Omit any one of these from your program of work and it will surely be a weak one; make much of each element, and you will be surprised at the success attained. m A communication from a former leader of a mission study class mentions a not uncommon circumstance, viz. : that he decided to be a volunteer because of his careful study of missions in preparation for his class. While the object of this class is not to produce volunteers,...
