AND, like a dying lady lean and pale, Who totters forth, wrapped in a gauzy veil, Out of her chamber, led by the insane And feeble wanderings of her fading brain, The moon arose up in the murky east A white and shapeless mass. ART thou pale for weariness Of climbing heaven, and gazing on the earth, -Wandering companionless Among the stars that have a different birth, -And ever changing, like a joyless eye That finds no object worth its constancy? Thou chosen sister of the spirit, That gazes on thee till in thee it pities. UNRISEN splendour of the brightest sun To rise upon our darkness, if the star Now beckoning thee out of thy misty throne Could thaw the clouds which wage an obscure war With thy young...

An extremely wonderful book with perfect and lucid information. This can be for all those who statte there had not been a really worth reading through. Its been written in an exceptionally easy way and it is only after i finished reading this ebook in which actually modified me, alter the way i really believe.
