

Animal Friends, Tail wagging and throat purring stories of shelter and rescue pets

By Christina Jirak O'Donnell

Christina O'Donnell. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 316 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.0in. x 1.0in. Every animal has a story to tell! Animal Friends is a unique collection of unforgettable stories of shelter and rescue animals who made a positive impact on peoples lives. Those who have loved them best tell their stories. Rocky, who was rescued by a kind soul. He returned the favor by helping her cope with a lifelong illness; Spike, the cat who picked a husband for her mistress; Perry, a small dog who found himself injured and alone on a busy highway, and after his rescue, made many nursing home residents smile; Pepper, the pot-bellied pig who flew from Pennsylvania to Florida, and inspired the founding of a pig rescue group; T. W. , a stray dog who now wears a badge; Gunther, a dog who had been used to train a fighting dog. Because of Gunthers case, laws were changed to prosecute people for dog fighting. All author and writer proceeds benefit shelter animals! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
