iUniverse, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Elliott Nonas will be 90 on January 21, 05. Born in Brooklyn, he wrote his first poem at 16: He Was Young and He Died about a friend who was killed sleigh-riding down Snake Hill in Highland Park. Drafted in 41, he spent 5 years in the armed services, rising from Infantry machine gun private to Air Force captain. What best characterizes him is his stunning immediacy and vibrancy as a person and a writing style that expresses him absolutely. When you read Elliott, you get the sum total of 90 years of lived experience through his eyes. Elliott s eyes are very sharp. His poems have pungency, humor and sensuality. He is funny, street-smart, and unbowed. Working out at the gym four days a week may be a factor. These are the poems of an unforgettable New York character, tough, resilient and full of life. Don t expect sentimentality or capitulation to a twilight life here. Elliott in person is, like his poetry, one-of-a-kind: resolutely affirmative, witty, robust, looking for the next adventure (always with a good-looking female). A bard of New York, but far from the ivory tower, accessible and eloquent, he s a one-man guide to staying with it, to extracting the last ounce of joy from life. He s done it, he s still doing it. Get ready for the ride. --David Evanier, Author, Roman Candle: The Life of Bobby Darin.
