RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 178 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)48612819 Subject: Free trade -- America. Excerpt: . . . 11 to feed their families. For Colombia to be truly successful in stem-ming the drug trade, it will need more economic opportunities that will provide jobs and wages that can sustain Colombian workers and farmers. We also need to encourage countries like Bolivia, which has suc-cessfully and courageously nearly eradicated the drug industry, but whose struggling economy depends upon textiles and apparel made of specialty wool from llamas and alpaca sheep. The relatively small investment of providing greater trade incentives under ATPA renewal would reap tremendous long-term gains for these countries and for U. S. consumers. Our Andean trading partners are also poised to be strong allies in our mutual efforts to secure a larger hemispheric trading bloc. I urge the Committee to expedite consid-eration of an expanded ATPA before the expiration of this agree-ment later this year. Mr. Chairman, I would simply close by reiterating the impor-tance of congressional approval of trade promotion authority legis-lation. I am confident we can successfully tackle the difficult issues of labor and the environment in this process....
