Xlibris Corporation, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The story centers on Angela and Lutie, who have been married for over thirty years. Early in the book I chronicle their upbringings, while Angela was sheltered and filled with the good things of life, thanks to her mother's personality and desires, Lutie's was filled with hard work and the tragic deaths of his parents, and an eventual brutal period of service in Korea. After the war he puts himself through college and takes a banker's job in the very bank run by Angela's stepfather, and so they meet, fall in love and marry. After the death of Angela's mother, in the early eighties, the couple desides to accept the legacy she left of a fine home, on the Island of Martha's Vineyard, where much of Angela's growing up took place, and substantial investments to guarantee a genteel lifestyle. The transition from their home of three decades in Pittsburgh to a life of leisure on the Island takes some getting used to, but they soon come to enjoy it. In fact, before long Angela has taken on the mantle left by her mother as hostess and reknowned artist in the community. Meanwhile, the unexpected reappearance of a hated old combat soldier from Korea thrusts Lutie back into that time period and that mentality, and begins to take its toll. This, combined with an unwelcomed population burst on the Island, starts to wear on his normally imperterable psyche. Angela observes the changes in her husband, which is never more noticeable than the night he attacks and beats up a crowd of rowdy teenagers breaking glass and scattering trash on his favorite...
